

Minnesota -- Political Activities

When every legislature convened JJH stayed in St. Paul to keep members from passing Granger laws to the detriment of his railroad. This was true throughout the 1880's. E.G., see his letter of January 23, 1885. JJH tries to get "right" members chosen for the committees.

JJH Letterbooks