

O'Hanlon, Thos. Co.
(General Merchants of Chinook, Mont.)

Evidently they were wool merchants as well as wholesale meat and grocery merchants. They had warehouses on the railroad (Great Northern) at Chinook, and Hill loaned them a considerable sum of money. There are numerous letters from them in the 1901 correspondence.