

Ordway, N.G.

January 30, 1886

N.G.Ordway to James J. Hill.

Ordway, at this time, was president of the Dakota and Eastern Investment and Banking Company, whose main office was located at Bismarck, Dakota Territory. There were two branches, -- one in New England and one in Washington, D. C. These branches had just been established.

General correspondence by date