

Oregon Railroad & Navigation April 4, 1898.
Company.

Carbon. [Hill] to E. D. Adams.

Is glad that it is not necessary to construct additional railroad. Feels that "the country is now supplied with all the railway facilities for years to come," and does not "think we should be compelled to either abandon our share of that business or be forced to build a line of our own."

General Correspondence by date.

~~Railroad~~
Oregon ~~River~~ and Navigation Company 4/4/98

See

Pacific Northwest - Railroads