

Oriental Trade

Ca 1888-1893

See material prepared for J.J.Hill by a special agent [probably Herman Rosenthal] in the Orient.

This material consists of a folder of notebooks containing handwritten notes and clippings, filed in General Correspondence by Subject under the title "Oriental Trade." There is also a large, wrapped package in Oversize labeled "Oriental Trade." This material consists of foreign newspapers and handwritten notes-data on customs, duties, exports and imports. Also see letter from the American consul at Hong Kong to Herman

Rosenthal, dated January 6, 1893, filed in General Correspondence by date.
