

Pacific Coast Company      January 16, 1899

J. D. Farrell to J. J. Hill.

Re change in head of the auditing department of the Pacific Coast Company. Would like a man from Hill's service, if he can be spared, "for the reason that he will have a proper appreciation of the necessity of guarding the funds of the Company, and is accustomed to demanding more details than is required by other lines."

General corresponden      by date