

Pacific Extension

April 8, 1890

Hill to J. Kennedy Tod

"¹here will be plenty of time for us to take up these questions when we come to build north and south. I think any company running to that point will have to end there, and cannot without the expense of running back to the main line, operate as a north and south line and if operated as a north and south line the detour necessary to run out to Ship Harbor and back would be fatal.

JJH LetterBook, 10/24/89 - 6/9/90, p. 454