

Perkins, C.E.

January 2, 1899

C.E.Perkins to J. J. Hill.

"I want very much to see you to talk about our Colonial questions -- there is danger, if we dont in some way close the door now, that some political party will some day give these outsiders representation in our Congress. Encloses copy of Hepburn's proposed amendment to the Constitution.

General correspondence by date