

Pettigrew, R. F.

April 8, 1895

To Hill

[Alexander] McKenzie is going West and will probably call to see you. You can talk to him about "the [Northern?] Pacific matter." "He is quite conversant with their affairs and is under obligations to Oakes, who, of course, he will not betray in any particular; but the Receivers are not in favor with the Reorganization Committee, as I understand it." Has great confidence in McKenzie.

General Correspondence by date