

Pillsbury, John S.

January 22, 1890

Pillsbury to JJH, General Correspondence

"The bearer W.H. Woolsey*is a young man who is by his own efforts trying to acquire a college education. He desires to meet you for a short conference. I believe him a worthy man." Stephens's note indicates that John Ireland is involved in the matter.

*Stephens spells it "Wooley."

2/83