

Presidential Assistant File

This file of the assistant to the President has been kept separate. Apparently it was started by Thomas J. Hyman, who was appointed March 1, 1892 to take charge of the general work of the office under Hill's direction, particularly in matters of operation, revenue and disbursements. During the President's absence, the presidential assistant transacted all business requiring prompt action.

Later assistants were: