

Proctor, J. W.

August 9, 1878

Hill to Proctor, House of Correction, Detroit Judge Barnes has not yet made up his mind. I have asked Stogell to urge this matter upon the judge and I know that Stogell can do more with him than anyone else. I fully appreciate the hardness of the confinement but nothing can be done until you can get the recommendation of the judge.

JJH LetterBook, 2/22/78 - 11/9/78, p. 132