

Rogers, Major A. B.

March 15, 1883

Secombe [secretary] to Hill in N.Y.

Knoedler & Co. are asking for a remittance [one for $18,000 was sent on April 23]. Van Horne went north last night & Major Rogers goes to-night. One consignment of immigrants has arrived bound for Manitoba. "The picture of Jefferson is now at your house. I paid Judge Clarke the three thousand dollars."

JJH LetterBook, 3/15/83 - 7/31/83, p. 1