Hill's secy. to George H. Hazzard

Answering an inquiry about Capt. Aaron Russell of the Mississippi and Red River Navigation fame, with whom Hazzard "steamboated... in 1864"

Hill states that he "remembers Captain Aaron Russell very well but is unable to give you any present information regarding him. The latest information Mr. Hill has of Captain Russell is that he went abroad for Lord Wolseley. Whether he came back or not Mr. Hill is unable to say."

[Did Russell go on Lord Wolseley's Nile Expedition up to Khartoum to rescue "Chinese" Gordon?] about 1884.
