

Russians in Minnesota

October 20, 1891

H. L. Williams (Sec'y of Hebrew
Relief Society) to J.J.Hill.

A committee of seven has been appointed to inspect the land [near Milaca, Minn.] upon which Hill has constructed "a large number of dwelling houses for Russian Colonists." Has learned that the land selected by Hill is of poor quality.

General correspondence by date

