

St. Cloud, Minn.-History      December 8, 1898

Rev. Herman Marshall to J.J.Hill.

For the past six years a severe business depression has affected St. Cloud. The failure of N.P.Clarke and the removal of the Great Northern Ry. division to Melrose has seriously affected the business life of the city. The failure of the Building and Loan Association has also contributed to the general depression.

General correspondence by date

