

St. Paul Public Library

October 23, 1912

Chas. C. Soule to Hill

"The building committee of the Public Library board has accepted my tentative sketch, as the first step in planning the new library." Is leaving for conference with [Electus] Litchfield in N.Y. (the architect).

General Correspondence by date