

St. Paul, Minn.-Churches-Photos Feb.25, 1912

W.H.Mount to James J. Hill.

Encloses photographs of six churches (including the old buildings of the Philadelphian Baptist church on Dayton's Bluff) and states:

"The accompanying photographs show the class of buildings, similar to our old building which has been replaced by the new, in the rapidly growing neighborhood. Over four hundred new homes have been erected in the last three years in the sphere of this church's interest."
