

Smith, Charles F. [locomotive engineer] Nov. 11, 1889

Stephens to JJH [memo], general correspondence

"I have purchased, subject to your approval, a black leather (dog skin) shooting jacket price $10.00. If such is about what you wanted to give Engineman Smith and attached note is in line, both will be sent forward today-- W.A.S." "Master Mechanics' record shows Chas. F. Smith to be the driver who handled your train--"

JJH notes: "OK"

1/83