

Smith, Donald A.

November 30, 1914

John Sterling to Hill

Enclosing copy of the clause in Lord Strathcona's will re his donation to Yale University of $100,000 for "promotion of the modern science and for instructions in the practical questions arising from the application of scientific knowledge to the Industrial, Social and Economical problems of the time," especially in railway transportation; and also for one or more scholarships. [See also Sterling to Hill, Aug. 20, 1914]

General Correspondence by Date

