

Spanish Americal War -Events Leading To.

James H. Kyle (U.S.Senator from N.D.)
to Hill, March 31, 1898.

War has almost been forced upon the country, but now things look better. Kyle states, "The President is pointed in his demand upon Spain and, in case the reply is not satisfactory, the whole matter will be turned over to Congress. In that event I look for a declaration of war very soon."

General Correspondence