

Special File 1891-1899. 1903,1904
"Assistant to the President"

This correspondence (3 boxes) relates mainly to the Great Northern Railway. There are letters to and from Thomas Lowry, (president of the "Soo" Line) W.H. Truesdale (president of the Minn. Transfer Ry Co.) Wm. Shimwell, (auditor of Wisconsin Central Road), and Frederick Abbot, vice president of the Wis. Central Road. Many of the letters discuss the proposed sale of the capital stock owned by the Wisconsin Central Company in the Minnesota Transfer Railway Company.

This file also contains many letters about the Everett Tunnel in Washington and the Everett Land Company, as well as material on the Seattle Terminal Railway and Elevator Company.

There are several letters from Marcus Daly, and considerable correspondence between Hill and Knute Nelson, governor of Minnesota over the "Red River Drainage Law."
