Re effect of the second Riel Rebellion in western Canada on the Canadian Pacific Road & on emigration to the Northwest. Shall be glad to accompany you to the Pacific, where neither of us has been (beyond the mts.) "and through which the Road was located against the advice of a great many who thought they knew the country." Northern Pacific is having "quite a little emigration to Washington Territory and Oregon. In fact, most of their business at present is Montana & Oregon business." Much interest in diversified farming along our line and I am much encouraged.
