

Stephen, George

April 30, 1897

Stephen to Hill

Glad Winter's resignation is settled at last. "I suppose you will now try to get the St.P & Duluth into line." Expects now to hear of Lamont's election to presidency of N.P. and Underwood as General Manager,"so that by July 1st you will be in a position to make your influence felt in the manag<sup>t</sup> of the N.P.... Schiff does not exaggerate the want of confidence here in everything American ... Gwinner sent me Adams long cable to read. English public is investing its money in such things as "Her Seigel's"drugs, flyer of which is enclosed.

General Correspondence by Date