

Stevens, John F.

January 21, 1899

J. F. Stevens to James J. Hill.

Lupfer "has gone out from Springdale on a scout." When Lupfer returns, Stevens will go out to look the territory over carefully.

Reports that with regards to the Kootenay Valley Railway matters, Alexander is interfering too much with Robert Irving, and is hampering Irving's management. Thinks Irving should be given "full rein"

General correspondence  date