

Suspense records      1 half-size box

Documents and periodic résumés revealing Hill's financial dealings with various persons -- a sort of secret file to remind ~~him~~ of debts he apparently did not care to press payments for. These included Archbishop John Ireland, C.M. Ramsay, Paris Gibson, J.H. Carroll, Marcus Johnson, Carmi A. Thompson, James A. Tawney, Alfred Cassatt, J.H. Bankhead, R.T. O'Connor, Visitation Convent, D. M. Sabin, F. C. Stevens John F. Stevens, etc. Some amounts were expenses of maintaining lobbies for or against Washington (D.C.) legislation or individuals in national politics, railway matters, etc.

