John W. Sterling to Hill

Re Beckles Willson's planned biography, extending earlier "life" of 1902, 283 pp. "The fire, which occurred some years ago in the Board of Trade Building in Montreal, where all Lord Strathcona's letters and other papers were stored, was the occasion of very great loss to him....[he] remarked to some one that the loss to him of these papers meant more than the value of his whole estate."
