

Taft, Pres. William H.

December 6, 1910

Hill to George W. Thayer, Rochester, N.Y.

"I found the President desirous of doing everything in his power to improve the general situation of the country." but uncertain how to proceed. What it really needs is "a rest cure. Country not in a bad way - banking law might be improved for a more flexible currency.

JJH LetterBook, 3/14/08 - 3/17/10, p. 385

