

Taft, William H.

February 18, 1909

William H. Taft to James J. Hill.

Has received Hill's letter of Feb. 10 concerning Franklin MacVeagh, and telephone message regarding Stevenson. People do not agree on a good man for post of Secretary of the Treasury, but Taft, himself, favors MacVeagh. States: "This business of selecting a Cabinet is awfully hard."

General correspondence by date

