

Thorne, Sam'l

March 10, 1884

Sam'l Thorne to J. J. Hill.

Mentions that the foot and mouth disease has broken out among cattle in Kansas. Suggests quarantine, and states, "I would suggest you use what precautions you can in bringing out the young bulls you are proposing to so generously scatter along your line."

"Glad to hear immigration prospects are good."

General correspondence by date