

Tod, J. Kennedy

October 28, 1889

Tod to JJH, General Correspondence

Distressed at report JJH may have been injured when private car derailed. Wishes JJH would work less. Praises "that gentle souled wife of yours and that quiver full of bairns [sic]." Notes "Mr. Kennedy is back again in very good health and excellent spirits" and would appreciate a letter from JJH.