

Toomey, J. J.

April 21, 1888

Toomey to Stephens, General Correspondence

"Matters have assumed such a position here that I am again obliged to alter my decision in regard to going to Saint Paul.

"I am aware that my action in this matter must be rather aggravating, but owing to the necessities of the moment, I have no alternative but to stay here."