

Touzalin, A. E.

July 29, 1885 - Aug. 24/87

Correspondence of Touzalin of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy rr. with Hill over this period of two years re formation of the CB& Northern; the Boston (Lee Higginson & Co., including J.M. Forbes) interest in these railroads; the last letter showing the extension of the CB&Q to the coal fields of Ill. and its advantages for Hill's railroad; re building the CB&N from Oregon & Fulton to St. Paul along the east side of Miss. River with 10 miles from Portage Curve to the Wis. line where a high ridge prevented construction & so, the use of Ill. Cent. rr's right of way came into dispute and to courts after a supposed agreement between the two roads.

General Correspondence by date