

Tuck, Edward

January 22, 1903

Edward Tuck to James J. Hill.

"The Northern Securities is getting better known over here all the time not only in London and Berlin, but in Paris."

"I have been surprised lately to find that French bankers and others were beginning to take so much interest in it."

"When the litigation is out of the way I believe it will become rapidly the favorite American investment stock in Europe."

General correspondence by date