

Tuck, Edward

[March 28, 1903][?]

Edward Tuck to James J. Hill.

Has been studying the statistics that J.J. Hill left with him, and believes that "when the liquidation is over and we get our decision, No. Securities ought to detach itself from the general market as St. Paul M & M did in the early eighties."

General correspondence by date