

Tuck, Edward

June 9, 1904

Edward Tuck to James J. Hill.

States that he gave "a fund to Dartmouth College which has been devoted to the foundation of what is called 'The Amos Tuck School of Administration and Finance,'" and that he "also gave three years ago approximately $100,000 to erect a building for the school, which is just completed." Hopes that Hill will be at the formal opening of this building in the fall.
