

Twin City Stockyards

Aug. 25, 1896

To Lord Mount Stephen,

"I have a new proposition for the Twin City Stock Yards, which when it materializes will I think be one that you can accept. [Arthur] Gwinner [of Deutsche Bank] leaves London Sept. 2 for U. S. and JJH hopes to see him in the West. Silver craze is waning but still strong in wWestern agricultural districts.

JJH Letter Book, 10/11/k5 - 3/13/99, tipped in after p. 114