

Upham, Henry P.

Personal friend of Hill's and wellknown St. Paul banker, First Nat'l Bank. See page 24 of testimony taken in the Farley suit: "Mr. Upham had correspondence with bankers in Amsterdam and was in correspondence with Lippman, Rosenthal & Co. and the principal parties who brought out the loans of the St. Paul & Pacific R.R. Co. in Amsterdam. He (Upham) had personal interviews with some Dutch bankers... Mr. Upham received letters from them advising him of the condition of the market and the general situation."
