

U. S. Steel Corporation

Feb. 25, 1901

Printed prospectus and "raison d'etre" of the corporation [from Boston News Bureau Summary, Feb. 25, 1901]

Re competitive plans of Carnegie and Federal Steel Co., that threatened duplication and re-duplication of plants in steel production.

J.P.Morgan's role as peace maker. Lists of the companies uniting to form the corporation: Carnegie Co., Federal Steel, National Tube, American Steel and Wire Co., the so-called Moore Cos. (National Steel, American Tin Plate, American Steel & Hoop Co., and American Sheet Steel Co.).

General Correspondence by Date