

U. S. Steel Corporation

April 12, 1910

Hill to J.M. Longyear

carbon

"The United States Steel Corporation expect to ship from two million to three million tons this year, so that the business is finally starting up. They have spent in exploring and stripping something between eleven million and twelve million dollars."

General Correspondence by Date