

Venner Suit

December 16, 1909

George B. Harris to Hill

J. Hamilton Lewis (Venner's attorney) called on Dawes and "was inclined to think that his client Mr. Venner might be disposed to abandon the litigation against the Burlington Company and its officers and directors in case the attorneys' fees paid by him were refunded."

General Correspondence by Date