

Walter, James [Major]

March 8, [1882][?]

Major Walter to J. J. Hill

"Your Jefferson is en route and should be here Monday... I congratulate you warmly on being its possessor. Next to Washington it is the most important in the country & it gratifies me that it has passed into such hands.

General correspondence by date