

Western trips

June 19, 1890

Hill to C. L. Parker, Bathgate, N. D.

Re owners of claims on Neihart line who are starving while refusing to do any work as the price of their claims continues to increase with the approach of a railroad. "I have sent several capitalists into that country but they have all gone away thoroughly disgusted with the action of the owners of the property."

JJH LetterBook, 6/11/90 - 10/21/90, p. 33