

World War I

September 6, 1914

carbon Hill to Hale Holden

Financial suggestions because of war conditions:
Many of the Allies holding U.S. Securities both industrial and railroad, in such countries
as Belgium, Holland and Great Britain may return them to the U.S. as collateral on short term loans.

General Correspondence by Date