

Wright , Davis Company

Feb.6,1899

To Henry Cannon

Has arranged Wright & Davis matter, paying them two million dollars cash; 750,000 to be paid in May next when the railroad is turned over; and $250,000 October 1 next, when the present year's logging business is closed & the logging contract turned over to us. All the securities except the railway & logging contract have been turned over by W&D. "Our lawyers are at work perfecting the legal plan [Lake Superior Co.?] for holding all the outside properties as discussed, and I think they will soon have completed a very simple and effective plan."
