

BANKING - Papers

Stack IV, Tier 4,
Shelves 2-7

7 volumes -- 30 boxes

These documents relate largely to the First National Bank of St. Paul and the Northwestern Trust Company, of which J.J.Hill and L.W.Hill were officials and heavy stock owners; in the latter's correspondence, moreover, with banks throughout the regions served by the Great Northern railroad, one finds a great deal about financial affairs' throughout a vast area.