

Hill, James J. -- Biographical 1933
A clipping from the Toronto Telegram, February 18, 1933, tells of a schoolmate, Jos. Fletcher, still living and recalling the villages of Eramosa, Rockwood, and Guelph in Ontario, where Hill grew up and attended schools described by Fletcher, then 93 yrs. old: Wm. Wetherald, the Quaker schoolteacher and friend of Hill's, who died in 1893; Robt. Passmore, the storekeeper where young Hill worked before arriving in St. Paul; Mary Eliza Hill, wife of John Brooks and mother of 13 children (25/12/1835-6/25/1905); and Alexander S.D. Hill (8/28 Sept. 6, 1839, who lived to be over 90)· and J.J.Hill's father who died in 1852.

Clippings File, March 12 and Feb. 18, 1933

Fletcher's son George C. in 1933 lived on Rice Street Road near Lake Owasso.