

Hill, James J. - Art collection

About a third of the way through Scrapbook No.5 (there is no pagination) is an article by Robt. Hale from the Pioneer Press of March 19, 1922, reproducing and describing six of his most important art treasures: Delacroix' Lion Devouring Antelope, Millet's The Diggers, Troyons' Herd of cattle coming from the Lake, Rousseau's Charcoal Burners, and Corot's Biblis.