

Hill, Louis W., Jr. - Oxford life 11/20/1925
12/7/1925

Tells the circumstances of meeting a member of parliament, Sir Arthur Shirley Benn on Atlantic crossing, who was of the Scotch [Balliol] college at Oxford and made his money in big lumber business in Alabama, married an American, and admired James J. Hill. Is M.P. from Plymouth knighted in 1918. He got sufficiently interested in LWH, Jr. to get Sir Arthur Steel-Maitland, minister of labor (conservative) to make arrangements for LWH to have as tutor, KEN N. Bell, one of the best at Balliol - in history. Jr. is to live with the Bell. Bell is about 40 yrs.

old and is second cousin of Bill Lindsay but has never met him. W. has degree from Edinburgh - is 6 feet tall, bobbed hair, smokes has six children all under 16, is 42 yrs.

Family Papers

Ken