

Maginnis, Martin , Major during Civil War and former student at Hamline Univ., Red Wing, prior to his enlisting (and largely raising) the First Minnesota Regt. and becoming its reporter for battles etc. for Red Wing newspapers; later, in Montana, he represented the Territory in Congress and still later was its U.S. senator; he also represented Hill and the Manitoba Ry. , especially while the road was trying to cross Indian reservations on the way to the Pacific. See his reminiscences in Gt. Nor. Vet. Assoc. Proceedings, 1913 and card for same.